HYATT REGENCY BALLROOM, Calgary, Alberta

Gala Dinner

RESOURCE EXPO 2003

Aboriginal Energy & Resource Development

Don't miss this spectacular event! The NITA Resource Expo 2003 Gala Dinner event will provide guests with the opportunity to network, participate in this year's exciting charitable silent art auction, experience cultural and contemporary Aboriginal entertainment and enjoy a delicious Northern Aboriginal meal.

RECEPTION 6:30 - 7:45 pm Guests will be encouraged to network, facilitated by designated event greeters. This year's spectacular artwork donated for the charitable silent auction includes a stunning bronze carving valued at $90,000. Guests will have time to register their opening bids, enjoy light hors d'oeuvres and drinks from the cash bar. Photographer, Brad Calliou, New Visions Photography, will be available to take digital group photos. Traditional flute music will be provided by Alex Wells.

DINNER 7:45 - 10:00 pm Guests will enjoy a succulent Northern region menu and decadent dessert. Live entertainment and announcements by MCs George Tuccaro and Winston Wuttunee will also be broadcast via live feed to a large screen so everyone will have a great view.

ENTERTAINMENT Discover Aboriginal Canada's best entertainers. Mitaart will bring Inuit legends to life through throat singing, drumming and story-telling. Neo-Eccentric Theatre Productions presents a comedy by Cowboy Smith and five other Blackfoot actors. Olivia Tail Feathers leads her talented young group from the Blood tribe, the Kanai Grass Singers, in traditional song and drumming.
