

CONFERENCE, TRADE SHOW & GALA DINNER

BUSINESS & POLITICAL LEADERS FOR WOMEN

"Facing the Challenges"

May 29–30, 2003

Crowne Plaza Hotel Georgia, Vancouver, BC

Canada's Aboriginal women have faced great hurdles in the past. While barriers to progress still exist, Aboriginal women are succeeding in areas that are having major impacts on families, communities, in commerce and the arts. Aboriginal women are forging new ground and overcoming challenges in business and politics. Don't miss this opportunity to learn more about the new era of development for Aboriginal women—a time of reinvention, changing dynamics, courage, and renewed hope.

The date and location have been decided. Register Early so you don't miss this opportunity!

YES! I want more information

Name

Company

Address

City

Province

Postal Code

Website

Email

Phone

Fax

N.I.T.A.

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT: Native Investment and Trade Association 7131 Marrington Road, Richmond, BC V7C 1V4
Phone: 604/275/6670 Toll Free: 1/800/337/7743 Fax: 604/275/0307 Email: mail@aboriginal-business.com
Website: www.native-invest-trade.com